

Grocery Store Hours

Grocery stores are considered essential services, meaning they are not likely to close during the COVID-19 public health emergency. The state has taken steps to make sure deliveries to stores continue. Even if San Diego County issues a “shelter in place” order, you can still go out for essential needs, like food.

To allow more time to clean and restock shelves, many stores have adjusted their hours of operation. Stores are also offering dedicated shopping hours for senior citizens and other at-risk community members to shop before opening to the public. Most stores require patrons to wear face coverings to enter.
