To the Carlsbad City Mayor and City Council,

I am writing regarding the City Council Meeting agenda items of ANNUAL CITY COUNCIL COMPENSATION REVIEW and APPROVAL OF REVISIONS TO THE CITY OF CARLSBAD PART-TIME SALARY SCHEDULE AND MANAGEMENT SALARY SCHEDULE

It is this resident's opinion that in the middle of an economic catastrophe we should not be considering raising the salaries of any of our city employees, including the city council. Businesses in the city have been shut down, employees have been laid off or fired, and the economic climate in general is negative. I consider it a slap in the face to all the businesses and owners and residents in the city who are struggling financially to give government employees a pay raise at this time, especially those making 6 figures.

Get our city's businesses thriving again and get our residents back to work, and then we can talk about raising salaries of those whose jobs have been secure.

Thank you,
Sherrie Packard
